A Call to Prayer

Would you agree that as Christians, we are given a privilege and responsibility to pray? We often quote Philippians 4:6 "Be careful for nothing; but in everything by prayer and supplication with thanksgiving let your requests be made known unto God." Or maybe 2 Chronicles 7:14, "If my people, which are called by my name, shall humble themselves, and pray, and seek my face and turn from their wicked ways; then will I hear from heaven, and will forgive their sin, and will heal their land."

We are commanded to prayer throughout the Bible, Old Testament and New. Doesn't that tell us prayer makes a difference; if not, why would God give instruction to do so? Isaac prayed for his wife, and Rebeka had a child. David prayed out of repentance and God called him a man after His own heart. Jesus prayed for the forgiveness of man from the cross.

In this time that we are living, maybe 2 Chronicles 7:14 is where we need to dwell. With all the news about abortion laws in various states across our nation, allowing abortion right up till time for delivery, allowing a baby who has survived an abortion to die (no right to life), aren't we living in wicked times, wicked ways? We just participated in a Day of Mourning Prayer Vigil for the abortion crisis, but it is a call to prayer every day because abortions occur every day. A Pastor, as he prayed from the pulpit, shared that while we were gathered for prayer, in one hour 173 abortions had been performed in our United States.

Wishing you a blessed Easter – remembering the gift and the promises Easter holds.

Truly, we are called to prayer for such a time as this. Even while we are so blessed in this nation, our nation and our people are in trouble. Won't you join us in this time of prayer.

Welcome to

We want to welcome Jan Logsdon, joining us as a Friday morning Receptionist. Jan is a member of Ozark Primitive Baptist Church. We also want to encourage Lynn Andrews as she has completed Mentor Training and is ready to shadow others before starting with her first client. Lynn has been and still is serving as a Tuesday afternoon Receptionist.

Maybe the Lord has been encouraging you to join us, give Sidonna a call at 774-4419, and let's talk.

Volunteer In Service/National Pregnancy Center Conference

We were blessed to have Stacey Luck, Area X Social Work Manager with Alabama Department of Public Health, come and update and educate us on all the services of our local Health Department for our expectant mothers and families. It was a blessing, and we learned so much that has changed and is new. We strive to stay informed in order to make referrals as needed for our clients.

Conference was, again, another huge blessing with Pastor Andy Merritt, Edgewood Baptist Church, in Columbus, Georgia. So much Bible teaching in such a short time that gives us such encouragement on Advancing Through the Storm, encouraging and equipping us not to waver but stand strong for Christ in the heat of the battle. We focused on seven Bible characters and the lessons they teach on how to relate to personal adversity and persecution related to ministry. And the Praise and Worship is always so beautiful with a new experience every session.

Client Feedback...

My mentor's strength and wisdom have elevated my motivation and esteem. My time at Sav-A-Life has been enlightening and encouraged me to keep with the will of the Lord. Regardless. Sav-A-Life has helped me by allowing a common space that embraces motherhood and parenting. My mentor has helped me understand my feelings by talking with me and asking questions about myself and family. The Bible Study workbooks have been very helpful. Everything was very welcoming, very glad I came. Kind, friendly and helpful. The best part of my visit was that it was very open and honest, and the prayer.
